Reliance Succession: A large fortune of Asia's richest Mukesh Ambani starts a risky transition

The flagship of Asia's richest tycoon is looking a tad overburdened with businesses that are mature enough to be cast off on the own. Successful public floats of telecom and retail units will do more than make Mukesh Ambani a centi-billionaire they may well determine the hold of the family run conglomerate on India's broader economy when control passes to the next generation. That transition could arrive by 2028. At Reliance Industries Ltd.'s annual general meeting Monday, the 66-year-old announced that his three children would be joining the board, even as he continues as chairman and managing director for five more years.

Reliance's sway has grown following a $150 billion investment spree over the past decade. It now controls 15% of the total fixed capital deployed at India's ... The market, however, wants to see some of that prowess translate into a higher share price. After recently spinning off a new consumer-finance unit worth $16 billion, the enterprise is valued at $232 billion, including net debt. Macquarie Group Ltd. analysts downgraded the stock to "underperform" last month.

IN CALL WITH PM MODI, PUTIN SAYS HE IS GIVING G20 MEET A MISS, SENDING LAVROV

Russian President Vladimir Putin spoke to Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday and conveyed his inability to attend the G20 Summit in New Delhi on September 9-10. Putin informed Modi that Russia would be represented by Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov.

While expressing an understanding for Russia's decision, Modi thanked Putin for Russia's consistent support to all the initiatives under India's G20 presidency, the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) said.

"The two leaders reviewed progress on a number of issues of bilateral cooperation and exchanged views on regional and global issues of mutual concern, including the recently concluded BRICS Summit in Johannesburg," the PMO said in an

Delhi News Live Updates: After minors 'sexually assaulted' at govt school, Kejriwal orders suspension of teachers, vice principal

Delhi News Live Updates Today (August 29): Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal, following the alleged sexual assault incident in a Delhi Government School, has ordered the immediate suspension of the teachers concerned and the vice principal who failed to report the incident to the police, after one of the children informed them about it. On the CM's direction, Education Minister Atishi has written to the Directorate of Education to ensure rigorous training of all the principals, and teachers on provisions of POCSO to avoid such incidents in future. Meanwhile, a Delhi government school teacher was booked for allegedly hurling communal slurs against a

Police said she targeted students belonging to Muslim community in her class, and added that counselling of the students was going on. DCP Shahdara, Rohit Meena, said that appropriate legal action will be taken after examining all the facts of the case. In other news, a 19-year-old guard at a high-rise residential society in Ghaziabad consumed a poisonous substance after she was allegedly raped by her supervisor on Sunday and died on Monday.

ACP (Wave City) Saloni Agrawal said they have arrested the supervisor and he has been sent to judicial custody. Agrawal added doctors at Safdarjung Hospital are conducting a postmortem examination of the woman's body. "We are awaiting the
